

Dr. Benjamin C. Dagley, D.O.

Dr. Dagley is from Houston, Texas. He received his undergraduate degree from Hardin-Simmons University in Abilene. He graduated from UNT Health Science Center - Texas College of Osteopathic Medicine in 2003 and completed his residency at UT Southwestern and Parkland in physical medicine and rehabilitation.

He started his out-patient pain practice in 2007 in Cedar Hill focusing on helping patients suffering with acute and chronic musculoskeletal pain. His treatment philosophy is centered around active listening and caring about patients. Patients can expect to be educated about their diagnosis and evidence-based treatment options for their pain.

Dr. Dagley lives with his wife and three kids in Cedar Hill and enjoys exercising, golf, and public speaking. He is passionate about educating healthcare professionals about financial literacy.
